It was our first time refinancing on line and they made the process easy and convenient for us. A lot of documents to download but at the same time it wasn't complicated.

Prompt responses to questions. Never acting as though a question was stupid. Very understanding regarding understanding that life throws us lemons sometimes so perfect credit is not achieved. Would def recommend this company if I have anyone...

Jason was readily available to assist. He was also quick to get me information as well as rates to make a decision. I was signing paperwork before other companies even got me rates. Great service.

Thanks to Jason and all of his hard work! He was compassionate, as I am going through a difficult time personally, and Jason was always there to answer any questions. He made the process incredibly easy and streamlined all the steps to perfection! I had used New American Lending in the past, and they were the very first company I called when I needed to refi. You will not go wrong with Jason and his team! Thank you so much to all of you!

Every so often you get lucky and run across a person who is passionate about their work and puts in the extra effort to really help their clients/customers. Jason is exactly this person! He's been a tremendous help from the interest rate reduction loan process we recently completed to the new home loan we are seeking. Outstanding communication and professionalism all around! I highly recommend Jason at Lakeview for your next home buying or refinancing needs. Great job, Jason!

Jason was an absolute pleasure to work with during our refinance process. He was always extremely responsive, mostly responding to emails within 24 hours. He was also willing to jump on a phone call any time to clarify any questions we had when reviewing documents. Jason was very patient and friendly throughout the whole process. We would highly recommend working with Jason!

We were working with another lender and was having difficulties with them for multiple reasons. With frustration I contacted Mr. Mubaslat and was very helpful. He was very easy to get in touch with via phone & email. The whole process went smooth and not once did I feel frustrated by it. I would highly recommend them for your lending needs.
